Maryknoll Office for Global Concerns Releases Fratelli Tutti Study Guide

WASHINGTON, DC— On October 8, the Maryknoll Office for Global Concerns released a 6-page study guide for Pope Francis’ new social encyclical, Fratelli Tutti: On Fraternity and Social Friendship. The guide offers key points and quotes from each chapter of Fratelli Tutti, along with reflection questions and two prayers from Pope Francis.

“The hopeful vision of global unity that Pope Francis offers in Fratelli Tutti is critical for our time, in which we are facing great challenges and social divisions,” said Susan Gunn, director of the Maryknoll Office for Global Concerns. “We are excited to share this guide, which we hope will enable individuals and small groups to learn Pope Francis’s teachings and use them to build peace and solidarity in their relationships, community, and in the world.”

The 6-page study guide for Fratelli Tutti is available for download on the Maryknoll Office for Global Concerns website: <https://maryknollogc.org/>
